The Graeme Jose Memorial Award

This award was established through the generosity of the Australian people, mainly from Whyalla, who contributed to an appeal at the time of Graeme Jose's fatal accident as he competed in the World Peace Road Race in the Austrian Alps.

He was a member of the Australian Road Cycling Team competing in Europe, in preparation for the World Road Racing Championships.

At the time of his accident, Graeme was the South Australian and Australian Road Champion and had completed with distinction in the 1972 Munich Olympic Games.

This award was created with money from the appeal after all costs were met. It was created not only as a memorial to Whyalla's first Olympian, but also to encourage the same character-building qualities exhibited by Graeme in his sporting achievements and his outlook on life, in the young people of Whyalla.
