SECTION A

INTRODUCTION

The role of a Council is to manage its local area by acting as an informed representative and responsible decision-maker in the best interests of its community. Council can only make decisions and act through a majority vote of the Council (or Committee). The effectiveness of Council meetings directly contributes towards accountability to the community.

Council meeting procedures are largely determined by the Local Government (Procedures at Meetings) Regulations 2013 (the Regulations). In addition to the requirements of the Regulations, this Code of Practice identifies a number of discretionary procedures adopted by Council for Council meetings.

1.0 POLICY STATEMENT

1.1 The Whyalla City Council is committed to the principle of open, transparent and accountable decision-making and encourages community participation in the business of Council.

Section 86(8) and 89(1) of the Local Government Act 1999 (the Act) provide that meetings of the Council or a Council Committee will be conducted according to the procedures:

(a) Prescribed in the Act;
(b) Prescribed by Regulation; and
(c) In relation to Council meetings, insofar as the procedure is not prescribed by either the Act or Regulations – as determined by the Council; and
(d) In relation to Committee meetings, insofar as the procedure is not prescribed by the Act or Regulations, or determined by the Council – as determined by the Committee itself.

1.2 Under the Regulations Council may adopt a Code of Practice that varies certain provision where they are capable of variation. This Code of Practice sets out the meeting procedures to be followed at Council and Committee Meetings and includes variations to meeting procedures that have been adopted by the Whyalla City Council and thee have been inserted (in bold) in the appropriate sections of the Regulations to enable them to be read in conjunction with the formal requirements of the Regulations.

2.0 PURPOSE

2.1 Procedures at Council meetings are regulated by the Local Government (Procedures at Meetings) Regulations 2013. In accordance with these Regulations, Council is able to set discretionary procedures pursuant to Regulation 6.

2.2 This Code of Practice is made pursuant to this Regulation and has been passed by a two thirds majority of Elected Members.

2. If notice of a question is given under sub-regulation (1) –

Where this occurs, the member is required to put the question in writing and forward it to the Chief Executive Officer.

5. The presiding member may allow the reply to a question without notice to be given at the next meeting.

6. A question without notice and the reply will be entered in the minutes of the relevant meeting unless the members present at the meeting resolve otherwise.

7. The presiding member may rule that question with our without notice not be answered if the presiding member considers that the question is vague, irrelevant, insulting or improper.

8. The Presiding Member will not individually ask Members whether they have any questions but simply enquire generally whether a Member has a question to ask. Members are to confine themselves to questions only and to avoid making statements.

10. PETITIONS

1. A petition to the council must –

   (a) be legibly written or typed or printed, and

   (b) clearly set out the request or submission of the petitioners; and

3. Any petition lodged with Council will be reported to the next available relevant meeting. In order to save paper and protect the privacy of individuals (noting that petitions usually include names and addresses and would be readily available to the wider community if part of the public record and published on the Internet with all other public records) the petitions will not be copied individually and circulated. A summary of the words under-pinning the petition will be reported to members along with the number of signatures on each petition. A copy of each petition will be available for Members to inspect prior to and at each meeting.
4. Sub-regulation (2) may be varied at the discretion of the council pursuant to regulation 6.

4. The Chief Executive Officer must take reasonable steps to ensure that the person or persons who requested a deputation are informed at the outcome of the request.

7. A council may refer the hearing of a deputation to a council committee.

12. MOTIONS

1. A member may bring forward any business in the form of a written notice of motion.

2. The notice of motion must be given to the Chief Executive Officer at least five clear days before the date of the meeting at which the motion is to be moved.

3. A motion the effect of which, if carried, would be to revoke or amend a resolution passed since the last periodic election of the council must be brought by written notice of motion.

4. If a motion under sub-regulation (3) is lost, a motion to the same effect cannot be brought –
   a) until after the expiration of 12 months; or
   b) until after the next periodic election, whichever is the sooner.

5. Subject to the Act, Regulations and this Code of Practice, a member may also bring forward any business by way of a motion without notice.

6. The presiding member may refuse to accept a motion without notice if, after taking into account the Guiding Principles, he or she considers that the motion should be dealt with by way of a written notice of motion.
7. The presiding member may refuse to accept a motion if the subject matter is, in his or her opinion, beyond the power of the council or council committee (as the case may be).

8. Members may seek to move motions without prior notice, but in order to assist Council in maintaining an open and transparent approach to governance, these motions should be restricted to matters closely related to agenda items, house-keeping issues or matters of extreme urgency.

9. Motions without Notice will not be accepted if they would revoke or amend a resolution passed since the last periodic elections of the Council. These must be brought forward by way of a Notice of Motion.

10. A motion will lapse if it is not seconded at the appropriate time.

11. A member moving or seconding a motion will speak to the motion at the time of moving or seconding the motion.

12. A member may only speak once to a motion except –

16. If the formal motion is:

   a) that the meeting proceed to the next business, then the effect of the motion, if successful, is, in the case or an amendment, that the amendment lapses and the meeting proceeds with the consideration of the motion before the meeting without further reference to the amendment, and, in the case of a motion, that the motion lapses and the meeting proceeds to the next item of business; or

   b) that the question be put, then the effect of the motion, if successful, is that debate is terminated and the question pout to the vote by the presiding member without further debate; or
(c) that the question lie on the table, then the effect of the motion, if successful is that the meeting immediately moves to the next item of business and the question can then only be retrieved at a later time by resolution (and, if so retrieved, debate is then resumed at the point of interruption); or

(d) that the question be adjourned, then the effect of the motion, if successful is that the question is disposed of for the time being but debate can be resumed at the later time (at the point of interruption); or

(e) that the meeting be adjourned, then the effect of the motion, if successful, is that the meeting is brought to an end immediately with the consideration of further business.

17. If seconded, a formal motion takes precedence and will be put by the presiding member without discussion unless the motion is for an adjournment (in which case discussion may occur (but only occur) on the details for resumption).

18. A formal motion does not constitute an amendment to a substantive motion.

19. If a formal motion is lost –

(a) the meeting will be resumed at the point at which it was interrupted; and

(b) If the formal motion was put during debate (and not at the end of debate) on a question, then a similar formal motion (i.e. a motion to the same effect) cannot be put until at least one member has spoken on the question.

20. A formal motion for adjournment must include the reason for the adjournment and the details for resumption.

21. Any question that lies on the table as a result of a successful formal motion under sub-regulation (19) to the council at the first ordinary meeting of the council after the general election.

22. Sub-regulations (9), (10) and (11) may be varied at the discretion of the council pursuant to regulation 6.

13. AMENDMENTS TO MOTIONS

1. A member who has not spoken to a motion at any earlier stage of the debate may move or second an amendment to the motion.

2. An amendment will lapse if it is not seconded at the appropriate time.

3. A person who moves or seconds an amendment (and, if he or she chooses to do so, speaks to the amendment) will, in so doing, be taken to have spoken to the motion to which the amendment relates.
4. If an amendment is lost, only one further amendment may be moved to the original motion.

5. If an amendment is carried, only one further amendment may be moved to the original motion.

6. Sub-regulations (1), (3) (4) and (5) may be varied at the discretion of the council pursuant to regulation 6.

14. VARIATIONS ETC.

1. The mover of a motion or amendment may, with the consent of the seconder, request leave of the meeting to vary, alter or withdraw the motion or amendment.

2. A member may, with leave of the meeting, raise a matter of urgency.

3. A member may, with leave of the meeting, make a personal explanation.

4. The subject matter of a personal explanation may not be debated.

5. The contribution of a member must be relevant to the subject matter of the debate.

6. Sub-regulations (1) and (2) may be varied at the discretion of the council pursuant to regulation 6.

7. A Member is at all times during a meeting to address and refer to another Member or an officer or employee by their official title or designation. A Member speaking at a meeting is not to make a personal reflection upon, or impute an improper motive to, another member or to an officer or employee.

16. VOTING

1. The presiding member, or any other member, may ask the Chief Executive officer to read out a motion before a vote is taken.

2. The presiding member will, in taking a vote, ask for the votes of those members in favour of the question and then for the votes of those members against the question (and may do so as often as is necessary to enable him or her to determine the result of the voting), and will then declare the outcome.
3. A person who is not in his or her seat is not permitted to vote.

4. Sub-regulation (3) –

   (a) may be varied at the discretion of the council pursuant to regulation 6; and

   (b) does not apply in relation to a member participating in a council committee meeting by telephone or electronic means approved in accordance with procedures determined by the council or council committee for the purposes of section 89 of the Act.

17. DIVISIONS

1. A division will be taken at the request of a member.

2. If a division is called for, it must be taken immediately and the previous decision of the presiding member as to whether the motion was carried or list is set aside.

3. The division will be taken as follows –

   a) the members voting in the affirmative will, until the vote is recorded, stand in their places; and

   b) the members voting in the negative will, until the vote is recorded, sit in their seats; and

   c) the presiding member will count the number of votes and then declare the outcome.

4. The chief executive officer will record in the minutes the names of the member who voted in the affirmative and the names of the members who voted in the negative (in addition to the result of the vote).

5. Sub-regulations (3) may be varied at the discretion of the council pursuant to regulation 6.

18. TABLING OF INFORMATION

1. A member may require the Chief Executive Officer to table any documents of the Council relating to a motion that is before a meeting (and the Chief Executive Officer must then table the documents within a reasonable time, or a time determined by the presiding member after taking into account the wishes of the meeting, and if the member who has required the tabling indicates that he or she is unwilling to vote on the motion until the documents are tabled, then the matter must not be put to the vote until the documents are tabled).

2. The chief executive officer may, in tabling a document, indicate that in his or her opinion consideration should be given to dealing with the document on a confidential basis under Section 90 or 91 of the Act.
19. ADJOURNED BUSINESS

1. If a formal motion for a substantive motion to be adjourned is carried –
   a. the adjournment may either be to a later hour of the same day, or another day, or to another place; and
   b. the debate will, in resumption, continue from the point at which it was adjourned

2. If debate is interrupted for want of a quorum and the meeting is then adjourned, the debate will, on resumption, continue from the point at which it was interrupted.

3. Business adjourned from a previous meeting must be dealt with before any new business at a subsequent meeting unless there is a resolution from the relevant meeting made at the time the business was adjourned to state otherwise.

4. Matters Adjourned / Deferred / motions lying on the table will be listed as a reminder to Members and staff of their status. A copy of any motion lying on the table is to be included in the Council Agenda.

20. SHORT TERM SUSPENSION OF PROCEEDINGS

1. If the presiding member considers that the conduct of a meeting would benefit from suspending the operation of all or some of the provisions of this Division for a period of time in order to allow or facilitate informal discussions, the presiding member may, with the approval of at least two-thirds of the members present at the meeting, suspend the operation of this Division (or any part of this Division) for a period determined by the presiding member.

2. The Guiding Principles must be taken into account when considering whether to act under sub-regulation (1).

3. If a suspension occurs in accordance with sub-regulation (1).
   a) a note of the suspension, including the reasons for and period of suspension, must be entered in the minutes; and
   b) the meeting may proceed provided that a quorum is maintained but, during the period of suspension –
